It does not matter who you are or where you are coming from – the moment you step onto your boat, you will feel like you belong.

The best way to discover the Croatian coast

Croatia is one of the most popular sailing destination in the world, and for a reason. Great climate, thousands of islands, the turquoise Adriatic Sea, rich history and excellent wines are some of the reasons why sailors from all over the world come here every year. To help you discover Croatia, we will organize interesting sightseeing, gastronomic and wine-tasting tours.

Why sailing in a flotilla?

We offer you a flotilla which will take you on the most relaxing and most interesting sailing experience. The participants of the flotilla can charter the entire yacht (with or without a skipper) or you can simply book one place on the yacht. Taking part in our flotilla is an excellent advantage because the participants have full freedom to determine their own rhythm of sailing and spend the day on their own, or they can sail with other participants and enjoy the company of other sailing enthusiasts. In the evening, all yachts come to a designated destination where a mooring spot is waiting for them.

Let us take care of everything

Another great advantage of our flotilla is excellent organization. Thanks to our fantastic lead crew, you will all the time know where you can go and what you can expect. The lead skipper will each day notify the participants of the daily forecast, as well as inform them what spots are excellent for taking a break and which restaurants offer the best local cuisine. In the evening, you will not have to worry about finding a place to moor – the lead skipper will have already taken care of that. Finally, there will be welcome and farewell parties, as well as an exciting regatta at the end of the flotilla that you will be able to join!

Our fleet

Our fleet consists of 15 Beneteau and Jeanneau sailing yachts, ranging from three- to five-cabin yachts, all in excellent condition. We also have two Lagoon catamarans that are available on request.

The town of Vis has a history that dates back to antiquity and is considered one of the oldest settlements on the Croatian soil. Throughout the ages, it had a great strategic importance, which is why today the whole town is a stunning museum of churches, old villas and fortresses.

Komiža is a small fishing town situated on the western coast of Vis. This port has never been affected by mass tourism, so it has preserved the atmosphere of the old Mediterranean and has turned into one of the most beautiful towns in the Croatian Adriatic. Just across Komiža is the tiny Biševo island, which hides one of the most unique secrets in the Adriatic – the Blue Cave, illuminated by an iridescent blue light that reflects on the cave's walls.

The town of Hvar is one of the most popular and most luxurious destinations on the Croatian coast. Just across the town is a beautiful collection of small islands called Paklinski otoci. These calm islands hide ACI Marina Palmižana, probably the most beautiful marina in the Adriatic. The marina is situated in a peaceful and green zone full of walking trails. Close to the marina, in an area covered with a pine forest, is a stunningly beautiful botanical garden, which constantly amazes the visitors with its rare and lush flora. Just next to the marina is a beach, which is why visitors always reluctantly leave this Adriatic oasis that simply has it all.

Jelsa is a small jewel of Hvar island. It is situated on the northeastern coast of the island and lies below the island's two highest peaks - Sv. Nikola and Humac. This calm town allows its visitors to enjoy a relaxed holiday sunbathing, swimming and discovering its green surroundings.

Milna is the best natural harbour on Brač. Throughout history, the town's economy was based on shipbuilding and seafaring. Today, it is one of the most beautiful towns on Brač and is a true representation of the Mediterranean as it once was.

The island of Šolta is situated close to the largest town on the Croatian coast, Split. The island is very calm and picturesque, and is ideal for calmer holidays. There are numerous villages worth visiting on the island, the most beautiful of which is surely Maslinica, on the northwestern side of the island.
