

WHAT TO TAKE?

Here is a detailed list of items you may need during sailing, i.e., items that may come handy in time of need. However, most suggested items are of personal nature. We consider it our duty to point them out to you but the final decision rests with you.

Documents, telephone address book and means of payment

- boarding pass
- contract for renting the vessel
- personal ID documents (passport, personal ID card, driver's license and a health ID card)
- skipper's license (if you are navigating the vessel yourself, without hiring our skipper)
- personal insurance policy
- other ID documents (diving, fishing, etc.)
- personal telephone address book with a special emphasis on the numbers you can contact in case of need, regardless of the working hours. These should include the contact details of port authorities and your charter agency.
- money (credit cards, checks, cash)
- the contact details of the departure base

Clothes and shoes

- waterproof clothes (in case of rain or/and strong winds)
- set of warm clothes
- set of light clothes
- a hat (for sun protection)
- light boat shoes or sports shoes
- mainland shoes
- swimming suit

Personal belongings

- sun-glasses
- spare contact lenses, if you wear them
- mask
- fins

Personal hygiene

- set for personal hygiene
- towels for personal hygiene
- beach towels
- paper towel or tissues
- toilet paper
- sun-lotions or oils with a high factor of protection
- sprays, or other means, for insect protection

First aid and medical supplies

Along with the medications you take on daily basis, it would be useful to have onboard medications for:

- nausea
- stomach sicknesses
- intestine problems
- throat inflammation
- coughing
- high temperature
- allergies

Other

- equipment for sports fishing (you need a permit for your underwater gun)
- tourist prospect or any other literature that can give you useful information about the territory you have chosen
- dish washing accessories
- scissors
- sewing accessories
- rubber gloves (for easier work with the anchors)
- flashlight
- matches (lighter)
- candles
- alarm clock
- clothes peg
- cell phone with a 12V charger
- camera or a video-camera
- small radio-cassette player
- cassettes or CDs with your preferred music
- if one of the crew members is a musician, you may want to take a music instrument
- social games
- fun and relaxing literature

Note

Luggage - if possible, take sports travelling bags instead of suitcases, since they do not take up as much space on board as suitcases, and they're easier to put aside in a place designed for that.
